Practicum

- This course will be offered during the duration of the Master of Nonprofit Administration degree, and will be offered in two parts.
- The first segment, the Practicum, will place candidates with local, regional, national, or international nonprofit and/or social enterprise organizations in order to afford candidates to gain valuable field experience within these agencies, while also providing an opportunity for them to turn theory into practice.
- Candidates will complete a mutually-agreed upon project at the agency during Mods II and III.
- Additionally, students will be more about key nonprofit topics, including but not limited to, grant proposal writing, board development, and leadership.

Academic Policies and Codes

Academic and Community Expectations

- Academic Code of Business Graduate Programs
 - Policies and regulations governing attainment of academic credit and degrees
- Graduate Academic Code of Honor
 - Student and faculty expectations & responsibilities for honorable conduct in all academic activities
- du Lac: A Guide to Student Life
 - Central resources for ALL students (undergraduate, graduate, professional)

Academic Code

- Section 4.3 Grades
 - Passing grades: A (4.000) through C- (1.6667) or “S”
 - There are no “D” grades in graduate courses
- Section 5.3.1 In Good Standing
 - “To maintain academic good standing, a specialized master’s student must achieve both a cumulative and term G.P.A. of at least 2.800 at the conclusion of a given term, including the summer session.”
- Section 5.4.1 Academic Dismissal
 - Dismissal will result from:
 - i) two consecutive terms on probation
 - ii) a term G.P.A. below 2.300

Academic Code of Honor

In Your Own Work

- All submitted work must be your own —no matter how small or insignificant the assignment, whether it is graded or ungraded, a draft or a final version

In Working with Other Students

- Collaborative study that has been explicitly forbidden by your instructor is also forbidden by the Honor Code
- Be mindful about sharing information, especially between groups or during a quiz or exam

What is Your Responsibility

- Be sure to learn from each of your instructors how the Honor Code applies specifically to that course; clarify any questions you have about individual and group work
- When in doubt--ASK

Honor Code Violations

- Plagiarism - Submitting without citation work that incorporates someone else's ideas
- Giving or receiving unauthorized aid on an exam or quiz
- Falsifying data of any kind
- Giving a false reason for requesting a make-up examination, an extension on an assignment, or an excused absence
- Turning in the same work for two or more courses without the explicit approval of all of the instructors involved
- Failing to take responsible action upon witnessing or becoming aware of an Honor Code violation

Honor Code Pledge

- Every Notre Dame graduate business student is expected to make the ethical and moral commitment to act honestly and to not tolerate academic dishonesty on the part of other students.
- The Graduate Business Honor Code Pledge

“The MCOB graduate business students, united in a spirit of mutual trust and fellowship, mindful of the values of a true education and the challenge posed by the world, agree to accept the responsibilities for honorable conduct in all academic activities, to assist one another in maintaining and promoting personal integrity, and to abide by the principles and procedures in this Honor Code.”
