Resource Scale & Impact

100+

Specialized Databases

Institutional Value at Your Fingertips

The Hesburgh Libraries invest around 1 million annually in subscription databases to support your academic success. As an EMBA student, you hold 24/7 access to the exact data sources used by top consulting firms and Wall Street analysts.

Accessing Resources

Seamless Remote Access

Access premier business databases from anywhere in the world using your Notre Dame NetID and Okta 2-Factor Authentication.

Most web-based library databases require no extra VPN—simply log in when prompted via library links.

Discovery & Catalog Tools

Utilize FiNDit (the Hesburgh Libraries catalog) to quickly discover e-books and academic journals.

Bookmark the Mendoza Graduate Library Orientation Guide for direct, authenticated links to specialized business databases.

Key Business Databases

Company & Financials

Capital IQ & Bloomberg: In-depth financial modeling, private equity, SEC filings, global m&a deal intelligence, and valuation metrics.

Market Intelligence

IBISWorld, Mintel, & Euromonitor Passport: Comprehensive US and global industry reports, market sizing, competitive analysis, and consumer behavior trends.

Business News

WSJ, FT & Factiva: Full digital access to Wall Street Journal, Financial Times, and global news archives for daily executive briefings.

Academic Use Terms

Strict Licensing Boundaries

All database subscriptions are governed by legal license agreements strictly limiting access to academic use only.

Critical Rule: Resources may NOT be used for corporate work, employer projects, commercial consulting, or personal financial gain.

Compliance Guidelines

 Academic Intent: Use library databases exclusively for Mendoza coursework, team assignments, and faculty research.

 No Commercial & Employer Use: Never conduct research for your primary employer or external clients using ND library credentials.

 No Bulk Scraping: Systematic downloading, automated web scraping, or saving entire database archives is strictly illegal under licensing terms.

 Protect Your NetID: Your NetID login is private. Sharing credentials with co-workers or non-ND personnel violates university security policy.
